In this fireside chat webinar, expert panelists from THIA, CLHIA, CAFII and a Passionate Traveler and Travel Blogger will dialogue with moderator Keith Martin on topics such as

- “revenge” travel;
- approaches to re-opening borders to international travelers;
- proof of vaccination and vaccination passports: a must to be able to travel internationally?;
- the end of the international travel “bucket list”?;
- impact on travel to lesser developed countries that rely on tourism and which will likely have a slower vaccination schedule;
- does Airbnb accommodation become more desirable than hotels, motels, and resorts?;
- five years from now, will cruise holidaying be stronger or weaker than it was pre-pandemic?;
- the impact on large group tourism, including school tours?;
- will local and domestic tourism see a net benefit?;
- will Canada’s airlines ever fully recover?;
- will the Canada-US border ever be the same again?;
- the impact on trip interruption insurance and what we’ve learned to improve the product?;
- the impact on travel health insurance and what we’ve learned to improve the product?
